Fall Sown Grass Seed Makes Best Lawns

No element contributes more to attractiveness of the home grounds than a beautiful lawn. It is an essential part of the "grounds beautiful." The seed is sown in the fall with good results.

Fall-sown lawns are the least weedy. Grass seed germinates readily in the fall; weed seeds do not germinate until spring. A fall started lawn, therefore, gives weeds but little chance to grow in the spring in competition with the already established grass.

Sow grass seed, 1 lb. to 200 sq. ft. of ground, as soon after August 15 as possible. It will quickly make a good showing. On winter's advent protect the new lawn with Barr's Coarse Tobacco Dust, or Barr's Prepared Tobacco Stems, and next year you will enjoy a beautiful lawn.

Barr's "Will Grow" Sunnyside Grass Seed
Combination of the most desirable grasses, fine-leaved, good color, lasting qualities. Our finest lawn mixture developed for our own Landscape Department. Its use is a real saving as considerable work and expense is incurred in lawn making and all may be wasted, if a cheap, poor seed is used.

1 lb. (about 1 1/3 qts.), 60c.; 5 lbs., $2.50; 25 lbs., $12.00; 100 lbs., $45.00; bu. of 20 lbs., $10.00.

Barr's "Green Mantle" Grass Seed
Splendid mixture of good grasses for average conditions of soil and sunshine. Will quickly give the lawn an enduring velvety deep green mantle.

1 lb. (about 1 1/3 qts.), 45c.; 5 lbs., $2.00; 10 lbs., $3.50; 20 lbs., $6.75, postpaid. By express, 50 lbs., $15.50; 100 lbs., $30.00.

Barr's Special "Shady Side" Grass Seed
The difficulty of getting grass to grow in shaded places is overcome by using this special mixture. Barr's formula includes some of the scarcer and more expensive varieties of grasses which have proven best adapted for situations of a difficult nature.

1 lb. (about 1 1/3 qts.), 75c.; 5 lbs., $3.50; 10 lbs., $6.00; 100 lbs., $48.00; bu. of 20 lbs., $11.00.

Lawns and Plants Need Mulching and Fertilizing in the Fall
On what you do in the fall for your Lawn, Evergreens, Trees and Shrubs will depend much of their vigor and beauty next season. Most important in fall and winter maintenance are Fertilizing and Mulching.

Tobacco Mulches and Fertilizers
Combining in themselves alone in high degree the two-fold value of Fertilizer and Mulch make Tobacco Dust or Cut Stems ideal for fall application. These materials are greatly preferred to manure owing to the latter's offensive characteristics and its liability to introduce weed seeds. They also have the additional value of being an effective insecticide.

A bag of 100 lbs. will be found sufficient for an area of 250-300 square feet of lawn. Around plants apply in a layer several inches deep on the whole area of surface above the spread of the roots.

Barr's Coarse Tobacco Dust—A Superior Product
For your fall fertilizers and mulch Barr's Coarse Tobacco Dust has decided advantages. Its fineness makes it easy of application. Composed largely of the leaf of the tobacco plant its fertilizing and insecticidal value is far superior to the stem portion of the leaf.

100 lbs .......................... $ 3.00
1 ton .............................. 50.00
(500 lbs. or more at ton rate).

Barr's Prepared Tobacco Stems
A very widely used mulch composed of Cut Tobacco Stems. Not as high in fertilizing and insecticidal value as Barr's Coarse Tobacco Dust.

100 lbs .......................... $ 2.50
1 ton .............................. 40.00
(500 lbs. or more at ton rate).

Granulated Peat Moss
Established lawns will be benefited greatly by a one-half inch covering of Granulated Peat Moss in the late fall. It will almost disappear by spring, leaving all soils richer—clayey soils will become more friable, and sandy soils made more retentive of moisture. One bale will be sufficient to cover 400 square feet of surface to the depth of one-half inch. For Evergreens and other specimen plants, cover the ground to a depth of 2 to 4 inches in a circle around the plants, or over entire beds.

To Enjoy Spring's Showiest Flowers

Spring’s earliest flowers—always gladly welcomed and thoroughly enjoyed—such as Snowdrops, Crocuses, Tulips, Hyacinths, Narcissi, are the reward of foresight exercised in planting the bulbs in the fall. These Bulbs cannot be planted in the Spring. Order now for this Fall’s planting. Once planted these will continue blooming for years, so plant now and save money at the present low prices.

Barr's “Florist Quality” Bulbs

The Spring flowering Bulbs offered in this folder are “Florist Quality” bulbs of the very best outdoor planting grade. They come to us as a direct importation from our Holland growers, thus eliminating middlemen and giving our customers the best quality for the lowest price.

Barr's Bulbs are not sent to our customers very early in the season as we prefer to wait until the Bulbs are thoroughly cured before having them shipped from abroad. This means sound Bulbs and surer results for our customers.

PLANT TULIPS IN QUANTITIES

Tulips should be planted in quantities for their mass effect or for striking combinations of color, as when planted here and there for individual flowers the effect is not so interesting.

The Early-Flowering Tulips are ideal for planting in beds, as shallow-rooted plants such as Geraniums, Petunias, Asters, Scarlet Sage, Gladioli, Zinnias, etc., can be grown in the same beds later without removing the tulips, except once in three years.

ONLY BEST OUTDOOR VARIETIES LISTED

The varieties of Bulbs here offered are considered the best for outdoor use. We have made special selection of those that give strong stems and last long, and having our customers the best quality for the lowest price.

Darwins — Most Popular of the Tulips

Darwins are the most popular of the Tulips. Especially fine as cut flowers.

BREEDER TULIPS

Breeder Tulips are characterized chiefly by rich, dark colors, many rare among flowers—brown, bronzes, blue-blacks, purple, dull gold, dark lime, etc.—and all exquisitely blended. They produce perfect harmony or effective contrasts with the more brilliant Darwin and Cottage Tulips, which bloom about the same time. Though not so tall the flowers will average larger than Darwins.

COTTAGE TULIPS

(Cottage Tulips will bloom several weeks later than the early blooming varieties. They are extremely hardy and should be planted in clumps or masses to follow in bloom the earlier varieties. Their exquisite colors and long lasting qualities make them especially valued for bedding purposes and for cut flowers.

PARROT TULIPS

The petals of the beautiful and interesting Parrot Tulips are curiously fringed or cut. The flowers are immense and very attractive by reason of the brilliant, varied colors. Before it opens the flower resembles the neck of a parrot, hence its name.

Parrot Tulips are excellent for bedding or in the borders, and are also beautiful in bowls or vases, having good keeping qualities.

The stately Hyacinth has long been a garden favorite and deservedly so.
Daffodils and Narcissi

For soft, beautiful colors, delicacy and gracefulness of form, and ease of culture the Narcissus or Daffodil is not excelled. They are perfectly hardy and do well in almost any soil or position.

Planted on the lawn, in the hardy border, under trees, or in a vacant corner in the garden they will bloom more abundantly and attractively each year. They are also easily grown in pots for winter blooming, forming a cheerful indoor decoration.

First size, round bulbs furnished on all orders for Daffodils and Narcissi.

MIXED DAFFODILS

Consists of a mixture of the best large-flowering varieties. $0.85 $6.00

INDOOR CULTURE OF BULBS

For indoor use during the winter season plant the Bulbs in a rich sandy loam any time from September to December, placing a few pieces of broken crockery or charcoal in the bottom of the pots for drainage.

Water very thoroughly and set pots outdoors under a depth of 4 to 6 inches of soil or coal ashes to prevent freezing. Or, after carefully watering, place in a cool, dark cellar; but don't let soil dry out.

Not less than six to eight weeks later bring gradually to light. If plants remain dwarf, shade slightly. After a reasonable amount of growth is secured, place the pots where desired; but, if in a heated room, water frequently. Bringing bulbs to light in relays will provide a succession of bloom.

OUTDOOR CULTURE OF BULBS

Crocoses, Hyacinths, Tulips and Narcissi should be planted in the fall before the ground freezes. Plant in a moderately rich soil, well drained. For extra fine flowers, incorporate bone meal or tankage in the proportion of one pound to each square yard. Avoid fresh manure. In heavy or wet soils it is advisable to place a handful of clean, gritty sand under each bulb.

Cover each bulb firmly with soil to a depth of twice its height. Space Hyacinths 6 to 10 inches apart; Tulips 4 to 6 inches apart, small varieties of Narcissi 4 to 6 inches apart and the larger varieties 6 to 8 inches apart.

In making a formal bed, dig out the ground over the entire design to planting depth. Place the bulbs exactly where desired. When arrangement is finished restore soil carefully. This method gives better results than digging separate holes for each bulb placed.

After flowering do not remove till leaves turn brown. If bulbs must be removed to make way for other plants, take roots, top and all, and heel-in (not too close together), in a shady spot until the tops commence to die; after which the tops can be carefully removed and the bulbs stored in a dark, cool place until time for replanting next fall.

BULBS FOR GROWING INDOORS

(Blooming Plants in the House All through the Winter)

Freesias

Set bulbs 2 inches apart in pots or pans. Place near window; temperature 50 to 60 degrees. Unlike Hyacinths or Tulips they may be started in full light.

Hardy Perennials For Fall Planting

From early Spring to late Autumn there are always flowers to enjoy where Perennials are planted in groups of 3 or more in beds or borders. Once planted they continue to bloom and increase in beauty each succeeding year. Avoid planting only one of a kind owing to the bizarre effect it produces—always 3 or more of a kind.

Perennials require little attention (weeding and watering during the growing season and mulching with fertilizer in the Fall) and, as each variety has a fixed period to flower, a succession of bloom can be enjoyed throughout the season.

The following table makes easy the selection of proper varieties (*) indicating kinds adapted to Rock Garden use, and (†) those that will thrive in part shade.

Unless otherwise noted all Perennials are 25c ea., 3 for 60c., 10 for $1.70, 100 for $15.00, for good, strong plants.

Achillea ptarmica fl. pl. Sheepewort or Yarrow. White, June-August, 1-1/2 feet.
Althea fl. pl. Hollyhock. Red, White, Pink, Yellow, July-Sept. 6-8 feet. (State color)

New Delights Are Yours In The Interesting Experience Of Creating A Rock Garden

Because of its ease of accomplishment and unlimited possibilities in transforming uninteresting spots into pictures of informal, rugged beauty, the permanence of the Rock Garden has become established. To create and maintain a Rockery is to enjoy an interesting experience. No wonder its popularity continues to spread throughout the country.

Holland Bulbs and Annuals For Frost to Frost Bloom

Enjoy continuous bloom in the Rock Garden by planting Tulip, Crocus, Hyacinth, Narcissus Bulbs in the Fall and annuals in the Spring after the bulbs have finished blooming. Space will readily be found for small groups of 3 to 5 annuals to bloom in midsummer when most of the hardy plants are through flowering, and taking a rest. In the Fall there will be no difficulty in finding places to stick the Bulbs.

The following Annuals are suggested for their colorful effect during July and August: Petunias, Thunbergia, (Black Eyed Susan), Verbena, Trailing Lantana, Heliotrope, Sweet Alyssum, Agastache. These will be found listed in Barr's Spring Catalog.

How To Build A Rock Garden

Select a gentle slope, place the largest boulders possible, placing the biggest stones at the base, the strata running the same. With the rocks naturally placed, a few large rocks picked than sparsely small ones preferable. In the pockets between boulders there should be a rich, porous, moisture-holding soil at least two feet deep. Moisture sufficient amount is the key of success, and every necessity than shade or frost. In the pockets between bushes for Rock Gardens are low growing, brilliantly flowering, rather heavily foliaged Perennials. A score of varieties that readily adapt themselves are listed on this page. For interesting results include some dwarf shrubs, Euonymus, Acanthus, Jasminum, Hebe, Myrtus, Yucca, Yew, Fuchsia, Clematis, and Saxifraga. These plants are beautiful foliage stability and the floral beauty of the blooming Dianthus plumarius (Grass Pink). Pink, purplish or white flowers nearly all summer, striking foliage. $1.50 per 10.

H. campylophylla (Coral Bell). Bright crimson flowers in abundance June to August. $1.70 per 10.

Iberis sempervirens (Evergreen Candytuft). Sheet of white; May-June, completely hiding the foliage. $1.50 per 10.

Erinus alpinus (Rock Cress). Produces dense masses of pure white flowers, early Spring. $1.70 per 10.

Campanula carpatica (Carpataan Bellflower). Clear blue flowers June until October. $1.70 per 10.

Centaurea montana (Plumbago). Beautiful pale blue flowers in midsummer; attractive foliage. $1.50 per 10.

Plant Evergreens In Early Fall

Evergreens transplant best for several months following August 15, when the new growth is completed and has become sufficiently hardened, or during the Spring months, before and just as new growth is beginning.

How to Transplant "Will Grow" Evergreens

The excavation for planting should be considerably larger and deeper than the encased roots so as to allow liberal space around the ball for filling in with good soil. Do not remove burlap, just cut top portion away after tree is tightened in the hole. Carefully pack soil under earth ball and when hole is two-thirds refilled, flood with water.

Growing Quality Into Evergreens

Barr's "Will Grow" Evergreens are root-pruned, shaped and trimmed frequently although at a sacrifice to us in remaining low cost quickly and cheaply. It has been found in our years of experience with Evergreens that this more painstaking method of culture produces plants of the greatest beauty and fullness, as well as developing a root system that insures growth after they leave the nursery. These better plants, although more costly to produce, are always more satisfactory and really cheapest in the end. The advantage of our better cultural methods is your gain when planting.

Do not confuse Barr's "Will Grow" Evergreens with the low-priced offers being made now to stimulate sales regardless of quality.

WINTER PROTECTION FOR EVERGREENS

To prevent heaving of the soil provide a ground mulch of strawy manure, cut tobacco stems or any material other than fresh manure which will form a light, loose covering. A coating extending as far as the spread of the roots and 3 to 5 inches thick, according to the density of the material used, is generally sufficient. No covering should be thick enough to bury the foliage.

Be sure, too, that the ground is thoroughly saturated with moisture before final freezes up, and leave no holes near the plants for the water to collect and freeze.

Each “Will Grow” Evergreen is carefully hand-dug so as to obtain a large ball of soil to encase the roots. For additional protection against disturbing the roots each earth ball is securely burlapped. Careful packing, as a guarantee of safe arrival, completes the steps by which “Will Grow” Evergreens reach our Customers in the best possible condition to insure success in the hands of the planter.

Our catalog prices include balling, burlapping and packing of Evergreens up to 4 ft. but for larger Evergreens to be packed for transportation the cost of packing will be additional.

Shipments of “Will Grow” Evergreens unless otherwise provided for, are made by freight as we find that method satisfactory unless otherwise provided for, are made by freight as we find that method satisfactory and most economical for the customer.

Water Evergreens Heavily Before Ground Finally Freezes
These splendid plants hold their rich green foliage all the year round and many varieties make a magnificent showing of bloom. Shaded situations are preferred by most of the varieties, giving them an added value in making them available for planting about the north foundations of houses or in shady corners.

Ornamental Shrubs for Fall Planting

Shrubs plant very successfully in the Fall when dormant.

“Will Grow” Shrubs are sturdy, well-rooted plants with a bushy top of numerous branches. They have been nurtured long enough in our nurseries to gain size and vigor, so that they will prove particularly dependable and desirable.

Fall is an Ideal Time to Plant Bulbs, Peonies, Perennials, Evergreens, Trees and Shrubs

As the most favorable time for planting hardy plants like Trees, Shrubs and Evergreens is when they are in a dormant condition, Fall is an ideal season for such planting. That noted authority, Baily, says, “In general, it is best to set hardy plants in the Fall.”

Especially should newly graded grounds be planted in the Fall—not only for the advantages of Fall planting but to escape the unsightly bareness which Winter will the more strikingly reveal.

Even after the leaves have dropped off, root growth still continues in the warm earth. The plant therefore has the opportunity of becoming prepared to withstand winter; and, when Spring arrives, being already established, is in condition to make immediate and vigorous growth, thus lessening the danger from a hot, dry summer, which may seriously affect any plant, especially one in a Spring planting, which has not yet become fully established.

GUARANTEE ON FALL PLANTING

So confident are we of the success of Fall planting that We Will Replace Free Any Plant reported to us before April 1 as having failed. By this guarantee any Winter hazzard that may exist is assumed by us, and the customer is protected against loss.

Plant this Fall While Rockbottom Prices Prevail

Everything offered in this catalog can be planted safely in the Fall, some responding even better than if planted at any other time.

Fall planting of Evergreens can be successfully done as late as any other planting, provided the ground is kept moist when it freezes.

Schedule for Fall Planting

The average dates for the Fall planting season follow, but the earlier planting is done after the season opens the better:

- Lawn Seeding—August 10 to October 10.
- Peonies—August 15 to October 10.
- Evergreens—August 15 to November 25.
- Spring and Winter Flowering Bulbs—September 1 to November 25.
- Perennials—September 1 to November 25.
- Trees, Shrubs and Vines—October 1 to December 15.
